

International – Endorsement/Reference form for applicants selected to represent GirlGuiding New Zealand Internationally

This form is not seen by the applicant.

Each assessor needs to fill in their section of the form. Please post/pass it to the next assessor for them to fill in their section.

When you have done that the Zone Manager will then send this, together with the application form, pen portrait and photo, to the National Office.

Your Zone Office has guidelines for interviewing applicants which you may find useful.

Please be honest in your assessment of the applicant. These evaluations are relied on to help select people who will represent GirlGuiding New Zealand well.

The following list of attributes of a good international representative may be useful when writing your evaluation of the applicant.

- Good communication skills
- Self confidence and self knowledge
- Self responsibility and initiative
- Consideration of others
- Tolerance and respect for other cultures
- Keenness to learn about other cultures
- Adaptability
- Ability to be part of a team and accept group decisions
- Co-operation and flexibility
- Respect for leaders
- Sense of humour
- Family support
- Health and fitness

If the applicant is an adult, please rate her suitability as a contingent leader taking into consideration her experience in:

- Guiding
- camping
